New Delhi, the 15th December, 1966

Notification

S. O. — In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (5) of section 5 of the Emergency Risks

(Goods) Insurance Act, 1962 (62 of 1962), the Central Government hereby makes the following scheme further to amend the Emergency Risks (Goods) Insurance scheme issued with the notification of the Government of India in the Ministry of Finance (Department of Economic Affairs) No. S. O. 3945, dated the 26th December, 1962, namely:

1. (1) This Scheme may be called the Emergency Risks (Goods) Insurance (Fourth Amendment) Scheme, 1966.

2. (2) It shall come into force on the first day of January, 1967.

3. In the Emergency Risks (Goods) Insurance Scheme, for paragraph 10, the following paragraph shall be substituted, namely:—

«10. Rate of Premium.

(1) Subject to the provisions of sub-paragraph (2) the premium payable under any policy of insurance issued in respect of the quarter ending on the 31st day of March, 1967 shall —

(a) in the case of a policy in force on the 31st day of December, 1966 be nil;

(b) in any other case, be at the rate of six paise for every hundred rupees or any part thereof of the sum insured, subject to a maximum of twenty-five rupees.

(2) The Central Government may, in its discretion, at any time during the said quarter, revise the premium payable under the policies referred to in sub-paragraph (1).

(3) Where the amount of any premium payable under sub-paragraph (1) involves a fraction of a rupee, the premium shall be rounded off to the nearest rupee. The premium shall be payable in one lump sum in respect of the entire quarter for which the policy is in force;

Provided that if any goods become insurable or are insured under this Scheme after the commencement of the quarter, the premium shall be payable in one lump sum, which shall be equivalent to the amount payable in respect of goods insurable during the entire quarter reduced by an amount which bears to the first mentioned amount the same proportion as the number of completed months in that quarter before the goods become insurable or are insured bears to three, the actual amount due in accordance with this proviso if it involves a fraction being rounded off to the nearest rupee.

(4) Where the premium has been revised under sub-paragraph (2), the provisions contained in the proviso to sub-paragraph (3), shall apply for the purpose of calculations of the additional amount of premium payable or of the amount of premium refundable, as the case may be, as a result of such revision, as if all the policies came into force on the date of such revision.

Law Department

Notification

LD/N/2/67

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 8 of the Identification of prisoners Act 1920 (Act 33 of 1920) as extended to the Union Territory of Goa, Damian and Diu hereby the Lieutenant Governor of Goa, Daman and Diu makes the following rules, namely:—

1. Short title and commencement. — (1) These rules may be called the Goa, Daman and Diu Identification of Prisoners Rules, 1966.

(ii) They shall come into force on the 16th day of January, 1967.

2. Definitions. — In these rules, unless there be anything in the subject or context:—

(a) «Act» means the Identification of Prisoners Act 1920.

(b) «Section» means a section of the Act, and

(c) words and expressions defined in the Act shall have the meaning assigned to them in the Act.

3. Taking of photographs or measurements. — Every person required to allow his photograph or measurements to be taken under section 3 or section 4 shall allow them to be taken under the directions of a police officer.

4. Place at which measurements and photographs can be taken. — (1) Measurements and photographs may be taken.

(a) in Jail, if the person whose photographs or measurements are to be taken is in Jail;

(b) at a police station or at any other place at which the police officer may direct the taking of the measurements or photograph, if the person whose photograph or measurements are to be taken is in police custody.

(ii) If the person whose photograph or measurements are to be taken has been released from jail before his measurements or photographs have been taken or is not in police custody he shall, on receipt of an order in writing from an officer-in-charge of a police station, attend at such place as may be specified in such order, on the date and at the time stated therein, for the purpose of having his measurements or photograph taken.

5. Restrictions on the taking of photographs. — (i) The taking of photographs under section 3 of the Act shall ordinarily be restricted to persons having at least two convictions for an offence of the nature referred to in clause (a) of section 3 of the Act but a person convicted of counterfeiting coins or currency notes, or of cheating, robbery or dacoity, or a person who has exhibited considered preparation or usual skill in the commission of his first offence may be photographed after the first conviction.

(ii) Photographs under section 4 shall ordinarily be taken only with the permission of the Senior Superintendent of Police in the Goa area and the Deputy Superintendent of Police, Daman, in the Daman and Diu areas.

6. Restriction on the service of an order under Rule 4 for taking measurements and photographs again. — No person whose photograph or measurements have been once taken under section 3 or 4 of the Act shall be required under Sub-Rule (2) of Rule 4 to attend at a Police Station or other place, to have such photograph or measurements taken again unless such person again becomes liable under section 3 or 4 of the Act to have his photograph or measurements taken or unless the photograph or measurements last taken are, in the opinion of the Deputy Superintendent of Police, Criminal Investigation Department, Goa or the Deputy Superintendent of Police, Daman or the Officer in-charge of the Finger Print Bureau or of any other local Police Officer, detective.

7. Measurements how to be taken. — (i) Measurements of the whole or of any part of the body may be taken.

(ii) The measurements of a woman shall be taken by another woman with strict regard to decency.

8. Method of taking measurements and photograph and their copies. — (i) As many copies of finger prints impressions may be taken as are required in accordance with the departmental rules for the time being in force and as many copies of foot print impressions may be taken as may, in the opinion of the police officer taking them be necessary for the identification of the person concerned.

(ii) Finger impressions shall be taken by applying printer's ink to the palmar surface of the fingers and thumbs above the first joint and then applying the surfaces so inked to a paper prepared so as to show the impressions of each finger or thumb in the space provided for it.

(iii) Foot-Print impressions shall ordinarily be taken by applying printer's ink to the sole of the foot and then applying the inked surface to a sheet of paper and or by tracing the outline of the foot, with or without shoes or boots on a sheet of paper.

(iv) Photographs may be taken full face, side face, head, bust or full length.

(v) The person to be photographed, shall, when he is not in jail, be first identified by two reliable witnesses. He shall wear his ordinary clothes and shall be bare-headed or shall wear head gear, as required by the police officer under whose direction the photograph is being taken. Such person may also be required to allow himself to be photographed wearing any other kind of clothes, if there is reason to suspect that he has worn such clothes for the commission of any offence.

9. Custody and disposal of photographs and/or measurements taken under Section 5 of the Act. — When a Magistrate of the first class directs under section 5 of the Act that any person shall allow his measurements or photographs to be taken, the measurements or photograph together with the negative and all copies thereof shall be handed over to the Magistrate giving such direction and shall remain as the property of the Court, to be filled with the records of the court or otherwise used as the court may deem fit, and shall, subject to the provisions of section 7 of the Act, be disposed of finally as the Court may order.

10. Custody and disposal of photographs and/or measurements taken under Section 3 of the Act. — Photographs and measurements taken under section 3 of the Act, together with negative and all copies thereof shall be recorded and kept in safe custody by the Senior Superintendent of Police, Panjim.

Spare copies of such measurements or photographs may be supplied to any Deputy Superintendent of Police or his subordinates within whose jurisdiction there is reason to believe that the person to whom the said measurements or photographs relate has committed an offence.

11. Custody and disposal of other photographs and or measurements. — (i) Photographs and measurements taken under section 4 of the Act, together with all negatives and copies thereof, shall remain in the custody of the Police until, the completion of the investigation or until the case is finally decided and thereafter shall subject to the provisions of section 7 of the Act, be disposed of as prescribed in Sub-rule (ii).

(ii) The photographs and measurements:—

(a) May if the person to whom they relate is subsequently convicted be retained by any of the following officers, namely (1) the Deputy Superintendent of Police Criminal Investigation Department, of Goa, Daman and Diu or (2) the Deputy Superintendent of Police or (3) any of his subordinates within whose jurisdiction the person was either convicted or arrested or is suspected to have committed an offence.

(b) Shall be retained by any of the officers if proceedings of the nature mentioned in clause (a) and (b) of section 3 of the Act, have been taken against the person to whom they relate or if such person has been arrested under section 55 of the Cr. P. C. or in connection with any offence specified in the schedule annexed to these rules and if the trying Court or where the person is released without trial, in Goa, Area the Senior Supdt. of Police Panjim and elsewhere the District Magistrate so direct for reasons recorded in writing.

(c) Shall, if they are not retained under clause (a) or clause (b) be destroyed.

12. Reproduction of photographs and measurements in «Police Gazette» etc. — The Senior Superintendent of Police, Goa, Daman and Diu may in his discretion, order the reproduction in the Police Gazette of photographs or measurements taken under these rules. All photozinc blocks prepared in connection with such publication shall remain in charge of the Senior Superintendent of Police.

13. (a) A clerk in each Magistrate's Court should carefully take on a finger print slip a clear rolled thumb-impression of all persons convicted of offences under the sections of the Indian Penal Code and other Acts mentioned in the Schedule and sentenced to imprisonment. The slip should show in a clear legible hand-writing the exact details of conviction date, Court, etc. and it should be duly attested by the Magistrate himself or a responsible officer of the court. The slip should be then securely attached to the committal warrant and sent along with it to the jail. The jail authorities shall enter the jail admission number on the slip and hand it over to the Chief Operator on his visit to the jail.

(b) The Chief Operator shall check the entry in the Jail Register with it and, after taking the convict's impressions as at present attach the slip to the finger impression slip and send both to the Finger Print Bureau where the thumb-impression and details of conviction on the Magistrate's slip will be tallied with those on the Chief Operator's slip to see that no error has occurred.

Notification

LC/5/66/127

In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 26 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 (IV of 1936) the Government of Goa, Daman and Diu hereby makes the following rules further to amend the Goa, Daman and Diu Payment of Wages Rules, 1964.

Any objections or suggestions which may be received in respect of the proposed amendment before 10-2-1967 will be considered. Such objections or suggestions may be addressed to the Labour Commissioner, Government of Goa, Daman and Diu, Panjim.

1. Short title, application and extent. — (i) These rules may be called the Goa, Daman and Diu Payment of Wages (Manner of Recovery of Excess Deductions) Rules, 1966.

(ii) These rules shall apply to the persons employed in any factory, or motor omnibus service, or in dock, wharf or jetty, or in construction, development or maintenance of buildings, roads, bridges or canals, or relating to operations connected with navigation, irrigation or the supply of water, or relating to the generation, transmission and distribution of electricity or any other form of power is being carried on.

(iii) They extend to the whole Union Territories of Goa, Daman and Diu.

2. Definitions. — In these rules, —

(a) 'Act' means the Payment of Wages Act, 1936.

(b) 'section' means a section of the Act.

3. Manner of recovery of amount of deductions in excess of limits prescribed under sub-section (3) of section 7. — Where the total amount of deductions which have to be made under sub-section (2) of section 7 of the Act in any wage period from the wages of any employed person exceeds the limit specified in clause (i) or, as the case may be, clause (ii), of sub-section (3) of that section, the excess shall be carried forward and recovered from the wages for succeeding wage period in such number of instalments, not exceeding six, as may be necessary to enable the deductions to be made in compliance with the said limits.

Illustration. — The wages of a monthly rated employed person for January are one hundred rupees and deductions (which include deductions on account of dues of a co-operative society) amount to ninety rupees. His maximum deduction from the wages for January will be seventy five rupees. The excess amount of fifteen rupees will be carried forward and recovered in not more than six instalments by limiting other deductions for those months so that the total deduction does not exceed seventy five rupees in any month.

By order and in the name of the Administrator of Goa, Daman and Diu.

B. K. Chougule, Secretary, Industries and Labour Department.

Mormugao Port Trust

Notification

MPT/IGA(E.344)/66

As required under Section 124 of the Major Port Trusts Act, 1963, the following Regulations which have been adopted by the Board of Trustees are hereby published.

I — General

1. Short title and commencement. — (a) These regulations may be called the Mormugao Port Employees (Supplementary Leave) Regulations, 1966.

(b) They shall come into force on the ...

2. Application. — These regulations shall apply to all employees of the Board who are governed by the Mormugao Port Employees (Leave) Regulations, 1964.

3. Definition. — In these regulations unless the context otherwise requires: —

(a) «Board», «Chairman» shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Major Port Trusts Act, 1963.

(b) «Earned Leave», «half-pay leave» shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Mormugao Port Employees (Leave) Regulations, 1964.

(c) «Medical Officer» means the Medical Officer of the Board.

II — Special Disability Leave

4. (1) Subject to the conditions hereinafter specified special disability leave may be granted to an employee whether permanent or temporary who is disabled by injury received during, or in consequence of, the due performance of his official duties or in consequence of his official position.

(2) Such leave shall not be granted unless the disability manifested itself within three months of the occurrence to which it is attributed, and the person disabled acted with due promptitude in bringing it to notice. But the Chairman if he is satisfied as to the cause of the disability, may permit leave to be granted in cases where the disability manifested itself more than three months after the occurrence of its cause.

(3) The period of leave granted shall be such as is certified by the Medical Officer to be necessary. It shall not be extended except on the certificate of that authority and shall in no case exceed 24 months.

(4) Such leave may be combined with leave of any other kind.

(5) Such leave may be granted more than once if the disability is aggravated or reproduced in similar circumstances at a later date, but not more than 24 months of such leave shall be granted in consequence of any one disability.

(6) Such leave shall be counted as duty in calculating service for pension and shall not, except as provided in sub-regulation (7) below, be debited against the leave account.

(7) Half the amount of earned leave granted under sub-regulation 8(b) below, shall be counted as earned leave taken.

(8) Leave salary during such leave shall be equal —

(a) for the first 120 days of any period of such leave, including a period of such leave granted under sub-regulation (5) of this regulation, to earned leave, and

(b) for the remaining period of any such leave to half pay leave, or at the employee's option, for a period not exceeding the period of earned leave which would otherwise be admissible to him on earned leave.

(9) Leave salary under this section shall be regulated under regulation 14 of the Mormugao Port Employees (Leave) Regulations 1964.

(10) In the case of a person to whom the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923, applies, the amount of leave salary payable under these regulations shall be reduced by the amount of compensation payable under Section 4(I) (d) of the said Act.

5. The provisions of regulation 4 above may be extended to an employee, whether permanent or temporary, who is disabled by injury accidentally incurred in or in consequence of the due performance of his official duties or in consequence of his official position, or by illness incurred in the performance of any particular duty which has the effect of increasing his liability to illness or injury beyond the ordinary risk attaching to the post which he holds. The grant of this concession is subject to the further conditions: —

i) that the disability, if due to disease, must be certified by the Medical Officer to be directly due to the performance of a particular duty; and

ii) that, if the employee has contracted such disability during service, it must be, in the opinion of the Chairman exceptional in character; and

iii) that, the period of absence recommended by the Medical Officer may be covered in part, by leave under this regulation and in part by other leave, and that the amount of special disability leave granted on earned leave may be less than 120 days.

III — Maternity Leave

6. The authority competent to grant earned leave may grant to a female employee whether permanent or temporary, maternity leave on full pay for a period which may extend up to the end of three months from the date of its commencement or to the end of six weeks from the date of confinement, whichever be earlier.

Note: — Maternity leave under this rule may also be granted in cases of mis-carriage including abortion, subject to the conditions that: —

i) the leave does not exceed six weeks, and

ii) the application for the leave is supported by a certificate from the Medical Officer or a registered Medical practitioner.

7. Maternity Leave may be combined with leave of any other kind to the extent admissible under the Mormugao Port Employees (Leave) Regulations, 1964, but any leave applied for in continuation of the former may be granted only if the request is supported by a certificate from the Medical Officer or a registered Medical practitioner.

Note: — Regular leave in continuation of maternity leave may also be granted in case of illness of a newly born baby, subject to the employee producing a medical certificate from the Medical Officer or a Registered Medical practitioner to the effect that the condition of the ailing baby warrants mother's personal attention and her presence by the baby's side is absolutely necessary.

8. Maternity leave shall be granted not more than once in two years and not more than on three occasions in the entire service of the female employee.

9. Leave salary under this section shall be regulated under regulation 14 of the Mormugao Port Employees (Leave) Regulations, 1964.

10. Maternity leave granted under the provisions of regulation 6 will count for increments in the post in which the employee was officiating at the time of proceeding on such leave provided it is certified by the appointing authority that the employee concerned would have continued to officiate in that post or a post on the same time-scale but for her proceeding on such leave.

IV — Terminal Leave

11. Subject to the conditions hereinafter specified earned leave to the extent due may be granted as terminal leave at the discretion of the Chairman to

- (1) the temporary employees, other than those employed on contract basis, on the termination of service on account of retrenchment or on the abolition of posts before attaining the age of superannuation, even when it has not been applied for and refused in the public service;
- (2) the re-employed pensioners, who are treated as 'new entrants' in the matter of leave subject to the condition that such pensioners shall not be entitled to draw their pension during the terminal leave if the pension was held in abeyance during the period of re-employment, on the termination of their services on the due completion of the term of employment, irrespective of retrenchment or abolition of the post;
- (3) the persons employed for a period exceeding one year on a contract basis, on the termination of their services on the due completion of the term of employment, irrespective of retrenchment or abolition of the post;
- (4) the unqualified persons who have to vacate their temporary posts to make room for qualified candidates; and
- (5) the persons whose services are dispensed with as a matter of administrative convenience as an alternative to the initiation of disciplinary proceedings against them.

12. Terminal leave shall not be admissible in the following circumstances. — (1) Where the employee concerned has been dismissed or removed from service; or

(2) Where the employee concerned resigns of his own volition, unless the resignation is for reasons of ill health or for other reasons beyond his control, provided that leave not exceeding half the amount of earned leave which the employee concerned can avail of at a time may, at the discretion of the Chairman may also be allowed in case of resignation; or

(3) to apprentices and persons in non-continuous employment of the Board.

13. In all cases where a prescribed period of notice is required to be given prior to the termination of services in accordance with the provisions of regulation 5 of the Mormugao Port Employees (Temporary Service) Regulations, 1964, the leave should be so granted as to cover as far as possible the period of notice required to be given, provided that if the employee is relieved before the expiry of the notice, such notice or the unexpired portion thereof should run concurrently with the leave granted.

14. These regulations are not applicable to cases where the services of a temporary employee are lent by the Central or State Governments, commercial undertakings or semi-government or Statutory organisations on terms which include the payment of leave salary contribution.

15. Leave salary under this section shall be regulated under regulation 14 of the Mormugao Port Employees (Leave) Regulations 1964.

16. Interpretation. — If any question arises relating to the interpretation of these regulations it shall be referred to the Chairman whose decision shall be final.
